Dear Professor Levy:

At last! ~~The manuscript is being sent to you~~ in the same mail as this letter. I really had no intention of producing a book. I hope it's not so long nobody will read it. Most of all, I hope it will be useful to you. Even though, separately, many of the studies may be "junk," I have some feeling the total effect will be suggestive.

The box of xeroxed material, reference cards, and After Divorce went out to you yesterday.

I'm starting my vacation tomorrow and will be back at the Center September 16. Naturally I'll be anxious to get some reaction from you, so if you have a minute drop me a note at 298 Willow Road, Menlo Park, California 94025.

I trust you are settled back in at U. M. and not missing all of this too much. Best of luck, and thanks for the chance at an interesting assignment.

VIVE McCARTHY!!!!!!

Sincerely,

Miriam Callaher
